Honorable P. Kenneth O'Donnell
Special Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. O'Donnell:

On December 4, 1962, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that on that date Stanley Levison had a discussion with a New York attorney named William Kuntsler. Kuntsler told Levison that the ticket sales for the affair to be held at the Westchester County Center in White Plains, New York, on December 11, 1962, would increase daily and that the box-office sales on that night should be good. This affair will feature entertainers Sammy Davis, Jr., and Peter Lawford and will benefit the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the President. Levison remarked to Kuntsler that he should make suggestions to King for King's speech to be made at the affair.

Kuntsler and Levison then discussed the segregation problem in Jackson, Mississippi. Kuntsler said he had been in Jackson four weeks ago and had fired up the Negro community when he spoke in seven different places concerning segregation problems. Kuntsler also said a picket line has been planned which will be composed of white and Negro individuals and will be followed by a massive Christmas boycott.

Kuntsler then told Levison he hopes to have King duplicate the walk made by William Seward on January 1, 1863, from Lafayette Square to the White House with the Emancipation Proclamation. Kuntsler plans for King to make the same walk on January 1, 1963, at which time he will be presented with a check for $35,000 at the White House to be used for the Ghandi Society for Human Rights. This check, according to Kuntsler, will symbolize that now the Negro has become full grown. Kuntsler said he would like to have Carl Sandburg or Robert Frost accompany King on this walk; however, he has already determined that Sandburg has prior commitments. Levison stated he does not like the idea of a check being presented but Kuntsler remarked that he does not believe the President will be at the White House on New Year's Day and said he thinks they can get an okay to walk into the White House.

Stanley David Levison, who recently organized the Ghandi Society for Human Rights in King's name, has been described by an informant who has furnished reliable information in the past as a secret member of the Communist Party.

William M. Kunstler, who may be identical with the William Kuntsler mentioned above, is a member of the firm Kunstler and Kunstler, 511 Fifth Avenue, New York City; has been an attorney for the American Civil Liberties Union; and has, in the past, acted as the legal representative of several "freedom riders" in Mississippi.

This matter is being classified "Secret" in view of the sensitive nature of the sources.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

SUBJECT: RACIAL SITUATION
 ALBANY, GEORGIA
 RACIAL MATTERS

"The Worker" of Sunday, 12/2/62, carries a two-page spread captioned, "The Southern Mobsters and their Federal Friends." Memoranda have been written concerning the report written by Howard Zinn, a professor of history and social science at Spelman College, (A Negro institution) in Atlanta, Georgia. "The Worker" has taken various excerpts from the report which, in general, is critical of the Bureau, the President, the Justice Department and the Albany, Georgia, city administration.

The article is a typically biased article which could be expected from "The Worker." The article sets forth that there is a considerable amount of distrust among Albany Negroes for local members of the FBI. According to Zinn, a young Negro told him, "They're a bunch of racists." Zinn states, "Whether true or not, this is the feeling of many Negroes who have had contact with the FBI and, even if distorted, it is a general reflection of the efficacy of the FBI's role in the area of civil rights." The full comments concerning the FBI mentioned in "The Worker" are attached hereto.

Information has previously been set forth that Zinn has been the subject of a security investigation by the Bureau and informants have reported that he was a member of the Communist Party in New York from 1949 to 1953. He was interviewed in 1953 and again in 1954 and denied membership in the Communist Party but admitted association with communist front groups. He described himself during the interview as a liberal interested in civil rights but claimed that he would never be involved with any organization detrimental to the security of his country.

The above report by Zinn, which was published by the Southern Regional Council, has also been commented upon by Reverend Martin Luther King. King went along with the general theme of the article and stated, among other things, "one of the great problems we face with the FBI in the South is that the Agents are white southerners who have been influenced by the mores of their community. To maintain their status they have to be friendly with the local police and people who are promoting segregation. Every time I saw FBI men in Albany, they were with the local police force." In this connection, it should be noted that of the five Agents assigned to the Albany, Georgia, Resident Agency, four are from northern states and only one is a native of Georgia.

In this connection, it should be noted that Assistant Directors Sullivan and DeLoach have made an attempt to contact Reverend Mr. King to straighten him out concerning the work of this Bureau and they are following the matter closely until such an interview can be conducted.

In all instances where allegations of civil rights violations were brought to the attention of this Bureau, appropriate investigation was conducted and the information was furnished to the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice. "The Worker" mentions that one arrest was made and this resulted when an FBI man was attacked near the site of a burned church. "The Worker" does not mention the arrests which followed the solving of the burning of two Negro churches in the Albany, Georgia, area.

November 1962

Dear Friend:

The long awaited alliance of moderate whites and Negroes in the south has begun to crystallize, within the burgeoning Negro drive for the ballot.

In the still largely intolerant climate of the south, the white and Negro communities of-interest could grow only in partial concealment. The oldest democratic institution in America, the secret ballot, has become the secret weapon. Separately and individually, yet in unity, Negro and moderate whites have been voting changed conditions of existence.

In Georgia this fall in the election for Governor, a rabid segregationist confronted a white moderate. The segregationist campaigned not so much against his opponent, as against me, in a torrent of racist hysteria. Yet almost fifty percent of the white vote was cast against him; and in a de-facto electoral alliance, they were joined by 90% of the Negro vote. The segregationist was overwhelmingly defeated, and Georgia will have a Chief Executive who is pledged to preserve law and order even if discriminatory practices must be abandoned. This successful experience follows similar victories in the Mayoralty election in Atlanta, and the recent Congressional contest in Fulton County, Georgia.

Climaxing these developments, three Negro citizens are candidates for the Georgia State Senate. The election of at least one seems assured. This will be the first Negro elected to the Georgia Senate in nearly 100 years.

We, in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, have long insisted that moving the Negro people into active non-violent protest would evolve a higher political stage when the movement directed itself toward the ballot. As Negro citizens accumulate electoral power, white moderate elements wisely take such strength into account, and adjust their policies so that common action becomes practical.

We are on the threshold of a major breakthrough in democratic advancement. Fissures are widening the solid walls of segregation even as violence and terror are mainly resorted to in Mississippi. The recent burning of churches, which has been the scene of Voter Registration meetings in rural Southwest Georgia, symbolizes the fact that the growing Negro vote is the strongest organized movement for the establishment and defense of Civil Liberties as well as Civil Rights in the south.

In addition to the southwide Voter Registration work, S.C.L.C. conducts adult citizenship-education programs attacking illiteracy at the community level; grants scholarship aid to students pioneering in the desegregation of schools of higher learning in the "hard core" states; and organizes non-violent direct action projects to end segregation in public places of accommodation, open up better job opportunities, etc.

Our thin resources have been strained to the limit to sustain this advance. It would be tragic if our progress is slowed or halted for lack of financial resources to maintain and assemble larger legions in this crusade for the ballot and freedom.

You can make an historic contribution in giving support. Please send your check to help the march of progress through the breach we have opened. A democratic future for the south is a luminous prospect.

With sincerest good wishes,

Set forth below for the information of the New York and Atlanta Divisions is an article quoted from the daily New Orleans morning newspaper, The Times Picayune, of November 2, 1962:

"O'DELL RESIGNS PLACE IN SCLC

"Was Never Director, Asserts Rev. King

"Jack H. O'Dell, sometimes known as Hunter Pitts O'Dell, has resigned his position with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, which is headed by the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., Negro integrationist advocate.

"The resignation followed publication by The Times - Picayune on Oct. 26 of O'Dell's connection with the SCLC and of O'Dell's record of invoking the Fifth Amendment when asked if he was Southern district organizer for the Communist party.

"A report of O'Dell's resignation was received by mail Thursday by The Times - Picayune from headquarters of the SCLC in Atlanta. It was contained "in a statement in which the Rev. Mr. King denied that he knew of any of O'Dell's activities for the Communist party.

"The statement received from Atlanta follows:

'Martin Luther King Jr., today denied knowledge of any previous Communist activities of a former employee, J.H. O'Dell. The Times-Picayune several days ago charged that O'Dell functioned in a top position with SCLC and that he had been active as a Communist organizer prior to 1953.

'Dr. King said: 'It is totally inaccurate and false that Mr. O'Dell is Southeastern director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Not only has he never been director but was never considered for the position. Mr. O'Dell has functioned purely as a technician with 90 per cent of his work taking place in the North where he resides, and involving the mechanization of our mailing procedures. He was briefly and temporarily filling in in some areas of voter registration, but ceased functioning there long before this publicity appeared. Furthermore, SCLC is so firmly established as a Christian non-violent movement, that it would be impossible to be influenced in any way by the method or philosophy of communism. SCLC is a movement of Christian non-violent reform. Communism breeds violent revolution. It is also a firm policy that no person of known Communist affiliation can serve on the staff, executive board or its membership at large.

"It is our firm conviction that communism is based on an ethical relativism, a metaphysical materialism, a crippling totalitarianism, and a denial of human freedom which we could never accept. We adhere to the philosophy of Christian non-violence, realizing that the means we use must be as pure as the end we seek. But included in our tradition is the American concept of fair play.

"We are, therefore, making exacting and fair inquiry. While Mr. O'Dell advises us that he rejects the implications of the charges made against him, in order to avoid embarrassment to SCLC he has tendered his resignation. We have accepted it pending further inquiry and clarification".

"After attending Xavier university here, O'Dell served for several years in the merchant marine.

"In July, 1950, however, he was expelled from the National Maritime Union at Galveston, Tex. The union took exception to his circulation of pro-Soviet peace petitions attacking the United States government.

"On April 12, 1956, identifying himself as Hunter Pitts O'Dell, a New Orleans waiter, he testified before the Senate internal security committee. He invoked the Fifth Amendment and refused to say whether he was a Southern district organizer for the Communist party.

"Robert Morris, counsel for the subcommittee, said information had been received that O'Dell was, in fact, a district organizer for the Communist party in New Orleans; that O'Dell gave 'directives to the professional group' here, and that he operated under three different names - the two others being John Vesey and Ben Jones.

NO 100-14516/lam

"It was learned that hundreds of documents seized at his residence, 2319 Louisiana Ave., by New Orleans police clearly established his key position in the Communist movement in the South".

Communist Resigns From Rev. King's Group

(Star-Journal Bureau)
WASHINGTON—The Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., said today that Jack H. O'Dell—who was identified as a Communist in a story in The Star-Journal Oct. 26—has resigned as an official of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

In a prepared statement from Atlanta, Dr. King denied knowledge of any previous Communist activities of O'Dell. King said that O'Dell was never director of SCLC nor was ever considered for the position.

The bureau story, from a highly authoritative source, said that O'Dell operates as a concealed member of the national committee of the Communist Party; that he had been until recently regional consultant to the SCLC staff, that he recently had been made acting director.

KING, president of SCLC
See O'DELL

since its inception in 1957, said:

"While Mr. O'Dell advises us that he rejects the implication of the charges made against him, in order to avoid embarrassment to the SCLC, he has tendered his resignation."

"We have accepted it pending further inquiry and qualification."

King said further that O'Dell "has functioned purely as a technician, with 90 per cent of his work taking place in the North, where he resides, and involving the mechanization of our mailing procedures. He was briefly and temporarily filling in some areas of voter registration but ceased functioning there long before this publicity appeared."

SCLC HAS a policy, King said, "that no person of known Communist affiliation can serve on the staff, executive board or its membership at large." He said SCLC is making an "exacting and fair inquiry" into the matter.

The Oct. 26 story said that from his birth in Detroit in 1923 until as late as 1958, O'Dell was known as Hunter Pitts O'Dell.

It reported that, under that name, he was expelled from the National Maritime Union in 1950 for distributing pro-Soviet literature attacking the U. S. government, that he had invoked the Fifth Amendment in 1956 and again in 1958 in appearances before congressional committees that sought to question him about his Communist activities.

Robert Morris, counsel for the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, said in 1958 that O'Dell was a district organizer for the Communist Party in New Orleans. At that time hundreds of documents seized at O'Dell's residence. It was said, clearly established his key position in the Communist movement in the South.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
F. B. I.
Washington D. C

Dear Mr Hoover: - -

The enclosed folder was being distributed in front of our church last Sunday. My husband and I are very concerned about the facts in the folder. We want to know if this Martin Luther King is a Communist or not. If so we want and intend to find out why he is being brought to K. C. to speak on Reformation Sunday Nov. 4th. Will you let us know if these facts are true about King and the answers to the questions on the back of the folder.

I've enclosed a stamped addressed envelope for your reply.

Thank you for taking the time to let us know the facts about Martin Luther King.

Very sincerely

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 14, 1962, that on that date, Stanley Levison had a discussion with "Lottie" Kuntsler, wife of New York Attorney William Kuntsler. CS

[REDACTED] b(1)
C

Mrs. Kuntsler stated that she had heard that there was a story in a New Orleans, Louisiana, newspaper to the effect that Jack O'Dell (Hunter Pitts O'Dell) had resigned from the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), an organization which is headed by Martin Luther King. CS

[REDACTED] b(1)

Levison advised Mrs. Kuntsler that Jack O'Dell has denied any active participation in the CP and offered to resign from the SCLC in order to avoid any embarrassment to the organization. Levison stated that he believes that Martin Luther King and the SCLC are holding the resignation in abeyance because they first wanted a conference with the paper carrying CS the story that O'Dell had been active in the CP. According to Levison, the Attorney for the SCLC happens to be in New Orleans at the present time and intends to contact the newspaper regarding the story. Q S U

Mrs. Kuntsler expressed concern over the fact that the O'Dell story could affect attendance at an affair that is being held in Westchester County, New York, on December 11, 1962. She stated that this affair, which will feature Sammy Davis, Jr., and Peter Lawford, is getting help from the SCLC. She stated that many people would not attend the affair if they felt there was any connection between the SCLC and the CP. She stated that if the American Legion became aware of the situation, it could have an adverse effect on the attendance at the affair. She asked that Levison discuss the situation with Jack O'Dell and let her know. Levison assured her that he would. Q S U

Dear [REDACTED]

The concurrence of three very important events will be celebrated with a gala dinner and entertainment at the new Americana Hotel of New York on October 23, 1962.

These events are:

The completion by the National Maritime Union of America of its first quarter-century of service to American seamen.

Joseph Curran's 25th year as head of that Union and as a dedicated leader of American labor.

The third noteworthy event is the establishment this year of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights under the honorary presidency of Dr. Martin Luther King.

The entire proceeds of this outstanding evening will go to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights to enable it to continue the progress in education and voter-registration begun by Dr. King, and to provide legal assistance to those seeking to utilize their constitutional privileges.

October 23rd is the eve of United Nations Day - a time most fitting to the occasion's international importance as attested to by the roster of distinguished men and women on the honorary committee.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date October 15, 1962

Attached sets forth letter dictated by Stanley Levison on 10-11-62 to Harry Belafonte in name of Martin Luther King. Letter thanks Belafonte for concert he gave in June, 1962, on King's behalf and invites him to share concert with Sammy Davis and Peter Lawford in December, 1962, for King's benefit. Another example of influence on King by Levison, a secret Communist Party member. Attorney General being advised. Q

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on October 11, 1962, that Harry Belafonte dictated the following letter on that date in behalf of Martin Luther King: B

"Dear Harry:

"It feels like a long time since I last saw you because turbulent events seem to stretch time out. Yet nothing is able to dim the memory of your unforgettable concert in June. The inspiration and the financial resources it provided were real pillars to lean on when the Albany crisis brushed upon us in the summer. B

"Because I appreciate your timely help so much, I am not writing you now to make any appeals. I want to say with complete sincerity you did your part handsomely. B

"However, Sammy Davis has asked me to write you to extend an invitation to share with him a concert he has agreed to do with Peter Lawford on December 11th at the Westchester County Auditorium in White Plains. B

I am enclosing a memorandum dated October 15, 1962, at Washington, D. C., which sets forth the text of a letter dictated by Stanley Levison in the name of Martin Luther King to Harry Belafonte.

King comments upon the financial aid Belafonte's June concert provided during the Albany (Georgia) events and asks Belafonte, at Sammy Davis's request, to participate in a concert to be given by Davis and Peter Lawford.

King states he will see Belafonte later this month when King speaks before the twenty-fifth anniversary dinner of the National Maritime Union, proceeds from which will go to the Ghandi Society for Human Rights, which Levison, a secret Communist Party member, recently organized in King's name.

This matter is being classified "Secret" in view of the sensitive nature of the sources.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on October 11, 1962, that Stanley Levison dictated the following letter on that date to Harry Belafonte in behalf of Martin Luther King:

"Dear Harry:

"It feels like a long time since I last saw you because turbulent events seem to stretch time out. Yet nothing is able to dim the memory of your unforgettable concert in June. The inspiration and the financial resources it provided were real pillars to lean on when the Albany events brushed upon us in the summer. ~~BU~~

"Because I appreciate your timely help so much, I am not writing you now to make any appeals. I want to say with complete sincerity you did your part handsomely. ~~BU~~

"However, Sammy Davis has asked me to write you to extend an invitation to share with him a concert he has agreed to do with Peter Lawford on December at the Westchester County Auditorium in White Plains. ~~BU~~

"In no sense am I putting any pressure on you but since Sammy wanted me to write you I am doing it and hope that any decision you make will be entirely based on your own convenience and not encumbered by the fact that I have written you. ~~BU~~

King, well-known Southern Negro leader, is President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and is copastor with his father of the Ebenezer Baptist Church, Atlanta, Georgia. He was born in Atlanta, Georgia, 1-15-29. King received an A.B. degree from Morehouse College, 1948; a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Crozer Theological Seminary, 1951; and a Doctor of Philosophy degree from Boston University, 1955. He has received numerous honorary degrees from Northern and Negro colleges. King became nationally prominent during 1955 and 1956 when he organized the successful protest that ended bus segregation in Montgomery, Alabama. He was selected one of ten outstanding personalities in 1956 by "Time" magazine.

Communist Influence on King

[REDACTED]

The speech delivered by King before a convention of the American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations held at Miami, Florida, in December, 1961, was reportedly written for King by Levison. Furnished the Attorney General (AG) 001816262 (X) U

On 8-3-62 Clarence Jones, who is an attorney and presently Executive Director of the Ghandi Society for Human Rights, New York City, told Levison that when King was considering violating the Federal injunction (apparently at Albany, Georgia), King informed Kennedy of this decision. He said "Bobby" Kennedy was absolutely shocked. Jones said that the AG attempted to talk King out of violating the injunction and that King "began telling him off in real tough terms." Levison told Jones that on 8-2-62 he had received a copy of a letter from King from jail in which King called on Kennedy to arrest the City Council in Albany, Georgia, under a Federal statute for depriving Negroes of their civil rights. Furnished AG 8-8-62. (X) 4

Clarence Jones was a member of the Labor Youth League (LYL) about 1954 in New York City while he was a student at Columbia University. The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. In May, 1952, he denounced the State Department ban on traveling behind Iron Curtain countries. He is currently under investigation.

b(2) b(7)(D) [redacted] advised on 8-7-62 that while in conversation with O'Dell, Levison asked how things were in Albany, Georgia. He replied that there was a leadership problem down there and that things could get quite disorganized if "our" staff was not there. Furnished AG 8-10-62. (X) 4 b(2) b(7)(D) On 9-10-62 [redacted] advised that on the afternoon of that date Jones and Levison were discussing burning of churches in the South. Both expressed the opinion that King should not be silent in this matter but should send a hot wire to "Kennedy" expressing his indignance at the Government's failure to control one small community. Levison and Jones agreed the telegram should say something to the effect that the world-wide obligations of the United States are so great that it cannot take care of a small community. Furnished AG 9-11-62. (X) 4

OBSERVATIONS:

CP influence upon King and his organizations is evidenced by activities of Levison, O'Dell, and Hudson, all active in CP affairs, and Jones, who has a subversive background and is active on King's behalf. (X) 4

ACTION:

Dear [REDACTED]

The concurrence of three very important events will be celebrated with a gala dinner and entertainment at the new Americana Hotel of New York on October 23, 1962.

These events are:

The completion by the National Maritime Union of America of its first quarter-century of service to American seamen.

Joseph Curran's 25th year as head of that Union and as a dedicated leader of American labor.

The third noteworthy event is the establishment this year of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights under the honorary presidency of Dr. Martin Luther King.

The entire proceeds of this outstanding evening will go to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights to enable it to continue the progress in education and voter-registration begun by Dr. King, and to provide legal assistance to those seeking to utilize their constitutional privileges.

October 23rd is the eve of United Nations Day - a time most fitting to the occasion's international importance as attested to by the roster of distinguished men and women on the honorary committee.

Enclosed is one Xerox copy of the 9/26/62 "NY Times" (page 23) article "Dr. King Says Integration at Alabama University is Next." The third paragraph from the end states, "...Jack H. O'Dell is the regional consultant to the field staff..." JACK H. O'DELL is identical with HUNTER PITTS O'DELL.

NY letter to the Bureau 5/29/62, captioned "HUNTER PITTS O'DELL; IS-C," provided public source material concerning O'DELL.

Mobile letter, 6/11/62, and New Orleans letter, 6/28/62, captioned "HUNTER PITTS O'DELL; IS-C," also provided public source information re O'DELL.

It is suggested that copies of the 9/26/62 "NY Times" article, which mentions O'DELL, be anonymously sent to the Mobile Register, New Orleans States-Item, New Orleans States, New Orleans Times-Picayune, and the Baton Rouge Morning Advocate, all of which have previously carried articles regarding HUNTER PITTS O'DELL or other Southern newspapers. It is suggested that a notation be made, "Isn't Jack H. O'Dell identical with O'Dell, the Communist leader in the South you wrote about?" It is suggested that these mailings be made from the areas of the newspapers. Perhaps only two or three newspapers would be selected.

It is realized that there are many serious considerations to be made regarding this suggestion, particularly at this time. However, it is believed that Southern newspapers because it is timely, would possibly give a very full coverage to such material.

It is believed that such an exposure would cause other Negro organizations such as the Negro American Labor Council (NALC) to clean out anyone who possibly could cause embarrassment because of Communist affiliation or background.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 26 (UPI) — The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said today that a "vigorous campaign" would be started this year to enroll Negro students in the University of Alabama and Auburn, because of their "inadequate position and backwardness."

The minister, who is pastor of the Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta, said the "Freedom Riders" pressing the Kennedy Administration to end the "segregation" for interstate transportation. "The Negroes could not have gone on the buses without the conference," he said.

"In the past, other nations have been in a position to have been, and South Carolina, where we had a lot of what we considered our attitudes boosted and supported by the federal government," he added. "The federal government in previous years had a great deal to do with the conference."

Called "Finest Stand" "Rice" period that the conference had been the "Finest Stand" of many white persons in the South, just as most Negroes had been in the North, King said. "The government has been in a position to have been, and South Carolina, where we had a lot of what we considered our attitudes boosted and supported by the federal government," he added. On September 10, 1962, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that on the afternoon of that date Clarence Jones, who is associated with fund-raising projects on behalf of Martin Luther King, Jr., and Stanley David Levison, a secret member of the Communist Party, were discussing the burning of churches in the South. Both expressed the opinion that King should not be silent with regard to this matter but should send some sort of "hot" wire to "Kennedy" expressing his indignance at the Government's failure to control one small community. Levison and Jones agreed the telegram should say something to the effect that perhaps the world-wide obligations of the United States are so great that it cannot take care of a small community. Jones said he would be talking to King by telephone on the evening of September 10, 1962, and would suggest the idea of the telegram to him.

Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., Dr. W. G. Abernathy and other Negroes were all found guilty in Albany City Recorder's Court on August 10, 1962. Each was sentenced to sixty days and $200 fine with both suspended.

According to [redacted] Albany, Georgia, Police Department, all Negro demonstrators previously arrested have been released on a blanket bond and have been given summonses. He estimated sixty persons were released on the night of August 10, 1962, including those in out-of-town jails.

Mr. William M. Rountree, attorney for the American Civil Liberties Union, New York, New York, on August 10, 1962, presented a petition for a writ of habeas corpus to the Clerk, United States District Court, Albany, seeking the release of Elizabeth Porter Wyckoff, white, of New York City, who was arrested in Albany on July 30, 1962, in a knock-in at the City Hall along with fifteen Negroes. Wyckoff is the only one still in custody and is eligible for bond; however, she does not desire to make bond. To date, the court has taken no action on this petition.

A mass meeting was held on the night of August 10, 1962, at the Mt. Zion Church with a capacity crowd attending. No incidents were reported.

Officials of the Albany Movement on the afternoon of August 10, 1962, sent a telegram to the Albany City Commission requesting an audience and announced they were withholding further demonstrations pending an audience. The City Commission was to meet at 2:00 p.m. on August 11, 1962.

Reverend I. Logan Hanson, Pastor, Cornerstone Baptist Church, Baltimore, Maryland; Reverend James Hearn, Washington, D. C.; and Rabbi Israel Broder, Springfield, New Jersey, left Baltimore on August 10, 1963, by automobile for Albany, Georgia. The Albany Police Department was advised.

On August 9, 1963, fourteen Negroes and two whites left the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Hartford, Connecticut, via Arrow Bus Lines, Inc., bus for Albany, Georgia. The bus, scheduled to leave at 12 noon, was delayed due to a lack of money when the bus fare was raised by the company. The nearly $500 deficit allegedly was made up by John Alsup, Republican gubernatorial candidate in the State of Connecticut. The following, among others, made the trip: Reverend Richard A. Battle, leader of the group and Regional Director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; Wilbur Smith, representative of Hartford Negro newspaper; two white college students, Peter Morill of New Jersey and David Wilson of Wisconsin (Wilson is a subscriber to "The Trail Blazers," a publication of the Socialist Workers Party); and Arthur M. Cox, not further identified. This bus arrived in Albany on August 10, 1963, and was met by Wyatt Tee Walker who advised the group that there was no disturbance in Albany and they should return Saturday instead of Sunday after a sightseeing tour. The Albany Police Department was advised.

[REDACTED] the American Nazi Party, an anti-Negro and anti-Semitic organization with headquarters in Arlington, Virginia, left Washington, D. C. [REDACTED] headed for Albany for demonstration purposes. [REDACTED]

O'Dell informed Levison that Wyatt Tee Walker, official of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, had contacted O'Dell on the previous evening and told him that all they came up with was the original idea of William M. Levinson and O'Dell then discussed the possibility of organizing a delegation of important people to go down to Albany. They were in agreement that this would be a good idea and planned to discuss it in detail in the near future. [REDACTED] J

This source also advised that on August 7, 1962, Levinson had a conversation with Clarence Jones, who has taken part in fund-raising campaigns on behalf of Martin Luther King, Jr., and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Levinson and Jones discussed plans for meetings to be held probably September 21, 1962, at Carnegie Hall and in Westchester County, New York. Levinson stated the purpose of the meetings is to put greater pressure on Albany and the White House. Levinson told Jones that he and O'Dell would come to Jones' home on August 9, 1962, where they could discuss in full detail plans for the above meeting. [REDACTED] J

Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., intends to leave Albany for Atlanta, Georgia, Saturday, August 11, 1962, but plans to return to Albany, Monday, August 13, 1962, and will remain until the situation is "settled."

The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee plans to assemble mothers and children in front of the City Library, Albany, and then have them appear at swimming pools, tennis courts and various playgrounds in Albany for small demonstrations on August 11, 1962.

A mass meeting in Albany is scheduled for Monday, August 13, 1962. The Albany Police Department has been advised of these planned demonstrations and meeting.

REC'D-READING ROOM

I have previously called your attention to the influence of Stanley David Levison, a secret Communist Party member, exerts on Martin Luther King, Jr.

For your further information, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, has reported the following concerning a conversation which took place in Levison's office on August 3, 1962, between Levison and an unidentified male.

Levison told the unidentified male that Clarence (believed to be Clarence Jones, who is associated with fund-raising projects on behalf of Martin Luther King and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) had informed him of a telephone conversation that had taken place between "Bobby" Kennedy and Martin Luther King.

Clarence told Levison that when King was considering violating the Federal injunction (apparently at Albany, Georgia) he informed Kennedy of this decision and, according to Clarence, "He could hear Bobby Kennedy fall at the other end of the phone. That's how absolutely shocked he was." Clarence also informed Levison that Kennedy attempted to talk King out of violating the injunction and King "began telling him off in real tough terms." Levison then told the unidentified male that yesterday (August 2, 1962) he had received a copy of a letter from King, from jail, in which King called on Kennedy to arrest the City Council in Albany, Georgia, under a Federal statute, for depriving Negroes of their civil rights.

The sensitive nature of our source requires the "Secret" classification of the above information.

Dear [REDACTED]

Your letter of July 26, 1962, has been received.

In response to your request, I would like to point out it has always been my policy to refrain from injecting the FBI or myself into problems relating to legislation. Within the Department of Justice the question as to the desirability of legislation is strictly a function of the Attorney General. In view of this, I am sure you will agree that it would serve no particular purpose to send me the material you described in your letter.

Portland Ore July 26-1962

Mr. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau Investigation
Washington D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

On Nov 8-1961 Rev Martin Luther King Jr., was in Portland Ore and he appeared at the Civic Auditorium, useless to say that there was only standing room.

After he had finished his address, I talked to him for possibly one minute and made a suggestion for a peice of legislation that he might ask our President to legislate by an executive order.

He seemed pleased of reading what I had shown him and he autographed it, I still have it and I would like to send it to you for safe keeping, and possibly for future use as I am convinced that it is better than anything they have asked for yet.

This letter may possibly arouse your curiosity to the extent as to favor me with a reply air mail, as I am most anxious to proceed with what Rev Martin Luther King Jr neglected after he had left Portland, although I did receive a letter from him from Atlanta Ga, telling me that he with some of his colleagues were preparing some papers that he would present to the President.

he I do not wish to be unkind towards Rev M.L. King Jr, we know that receives a great deal of publicity by agitating and demonstrating and he is much in demand to appear publicly.

There was only standing room at the civic Auditorium and if he appears on a percentage of the door receipts, his take home pay must be a generous one, whether he uses it for the betterment of his people or not is a matter for his own conscience to decide.

Yours very truly

Most of the present crop of Southern Senators and Congressmen will oppose and filibuster all legislation designed to protect the voting rights of citizens of this region.

YOU CAN CHANGE THIS SITUATION

Despite these obstacles Negro citizens are struggling daily to double the number of voters and to obtain representation in government.

Even the most die-hard segregationist in public office can be made to respect voting power. Furthermore, we know there are many liberal white citizens in the South

HOW

- ✓ To educate and stimulate Negroes to exercise the vote.
- ✓ To help them obtain the right to vote where in practice it does not exist.

ORGANIZE

- ✓ SCLC will help your community to organize registration schools, workshops for local leaders, public meetings on voter registration and provide material when requested.

IN UNITY THERE IS STRENGTH

- ✓ No narrow partisan interest must be allowed to divide us. In reaching a cross section of the Negro community, the Crusade will move across party lines.

- ✓ It is for the good of the local community that all civic, church, fraternal and other organizations cooperate in this effort.

NONVIOLENCE

- ✓ The Freedom Movement in the Deep South is a non-violent revolution, giving birth to a new day of progress and human dignity for all Americans, for generations to come.

SUBJECT: RACIAL SITUATION
ALBANY, GEORGIA
RACIAL MATTERS

SYNOPSIS

Negro Attorney Donald Hollowell has filed petition with Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals to vacate restraining order issued 7/20/62 by U. S. District Judge J. Robert Elliott. Hearing set for 7/24/62.

Department consulted in view of above as to whether interviews of persons named in restraining order should be interviewed. Department advised us to proceed with interviews.

Negro Attorneys on 7/23/62 attempted to have U. S. District Judge William A. Bootle vacate restraining order. He refused.

Mass meeting of Albany Movement held 7/23/62 with 200 in attendance. Reverend Ralph Abernathy and Slater King were speakers.

Abernathy spoke of beating of Mrs. Slater King by officers at Mitchell County Jail when she visited prisoners. Slater King attacked local, state and Federal government.

After meeting a group of Negroes were arrested when they failed to disperse and blocked sidewalk.

Martin Luther King, Jr., offered to leave Albany if Police and City Commission would hear grievances of Albany Movement. King remarked to another Negro leader at meeting with Chief Pritchett, "Do you think Bobby Kennedy would prosecute me when he calls me at various places throughout the country for advice?"

Petition for restraining order mentioned lives of FBI Agents were endangered by throwing of rocks. This was based on incident 7/10/62 when two Agents were in unmarked police car interviewing officers of Albany Police Department (PD) and Negro hoodlums threw rocks at car. A newspaper Albany City Attorney does not contemplate requesting any testimony of above Agents.

On 7/23/62 Martin Luther King furnished allegations to Albany Resident Agency (RA) that Mrs. Slater King beaten 7/23/62 by unknown police officers at Mitchell County Jail.

Chief of Police Pritchett of Albany attempted to interview Mrs. King but not allowed to do so.

Department requested investigation of beating of Mrs. King. Slater King abused interviewing Agent and "damned" Federal government. Mrs. King interviewed and signed statement obtained. She is five and one-half months pregnant. No injury done to unborn child. Interviews of other witnesses and attempts to identify subjects being made.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont
RE: RACIAL SITUATION

DETAILS

The Atlanta Office ascertained from United States Attorney (USA) in Atlanta that Negro Attorney Donald Hollowell had contacted Judge Elbert P. Tuttle of Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in order to file a petition to vacate the restraining order issued by U. S. District Judge J. Robert Elliott on 7/20/62 which order restrains certain individuals and organizations from conducting various demonstrations at Albany, Georgia. Judge Tuttle agreed to a hearing set for 10:00 a. m., 7/24/62.

In view of above the Department was contacted to ascertain if interviews of persons named in the restraining order should be conducted. The interviews are to determine if the individuals had knowledge of the existence of the order and whether any of the persons arrested were acting in concert with them or under their instructions.

The Department instructed us to proceed with the interviews. The Atlanta Office was so advised.

On 7/23/62 four attorneys appeared before U. S. District Judge William A. Bootle, Middle District of Georgia to file two petitions to vacate the restraining order of Judge Elliott. Judge Bootle refused to hear the matter since it is being handled by another judge.

A mass meeting of Albany Movement was held the night of 7/23/62 at Shiloh Baptist Church, Albany, and approximately 800 persons attended. Police units were removed from the area due to tense situation wherein Negro hoodlums were observed drinking and carrying home-made pipe weapons.

After the meeting was over a group of Negroes led by Vincent Harding, a Negro Mennonite minister, stopped before City Hall. They left when requested to by police but returned again and refused to move so they were arrested for failure to obey police officer and obstructing sidewalk.

During the above meeting, Reverend Ralph Abernathy and Slater King were main speakers. Abernathy described alleged beating of Slater King's wife by officers at Camilla, Georgia. Abernathy stated he was ready to fight for his rights.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont
RE: RACIAL SITUATION

Slater King in his speech denounced the municipal, state and Federal government. He is quoted as stating "damnable Federal government has turned their backs on us." Slater King stated he was tired of waiting for his rights and he was ready to fight. King also announced a celebration meeting tonight, 7/24/62, in anticipation of favorable action by Judge Tuttle in vacating the restraining order.

Chief of Police Laurie Pritchett, Albany Police Department (PD), advised that Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., and three other leaders of Negro movement conferred with him on 7/23/62 and offered to leave Albany if Pritchett and City Commissioner would agree to hear grievances of Albany Movement. Pritchett declined in view of pending court action. During conversation Martin Luther King asked Dr. Anderson of the Albany Movement, who accompanied King, "Do you think Bobby Kennedy would prosecute me when he calls me at various places throughout the country for advice?"

The petition upon which the restraining order signed by Judge Elliott was based contains in item 19 a remark that defendants had at various times threatened police officers and engaged in acts of violence involving the throwing of rocks, bottles and other objects endangering lives of citizens, police officers and Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). The information concerning FBI Agents relates to an incident on 7/10/62 when young Negro hoodlums threw rocks and bottles at a marked and an unmarked police car in which two Agents of Albany Resident Agency (RA) were interviewing two police officers of Albany PD concerning up-to-the-minute details on the Albany situation. The "Albany Herald" newspaper on 7/11/62 contained a short reference to the item which mentioned that there was a spot of violence when young Negroes near Shiloh Baptist Church threw a brick and shattered the $100 dome light of a police cruiser. The article reported two FBI Agents were in the patrol car at the time. The article is in error since the Agents were in the unmarked car.

The Albany City Attorney has advised that he does not contemplate requesting any testimony of FBI Agents in the above matter.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont
RE: RACIAL SITUATION

On 7/23/62 Martin Luther King complained to Albany RA that Mrs. Slater King visited prisoners at Mitchell County Jail, Camilla, Georgia, was beaten, knocked to ground and kicked by two police officers.

Chief of Police Pritchett had heard of incident and attempted to interview Mrs. King but was refused admission. According to Chief Pritchett, newsmen had already interviewed and photographed Mrs. King.

The above information was furnished to the Civil Rights Division of the Department. The Department requested interview of Mrs. King, any subjects identified by her and readily available witnesses. The extent of injuries should be ascertained and any visible effects photographed.

Agents of Atlanta Office went to King's residence on 7/23/62 to interview Mrs. King. She was under sedation and Agents talked to Slater King. King abused SA [REDACTED] stating he was the Agent who interviewed him in December, 1961, at the Albany City Jail when he was pushed against the bars. King stated, "the damn Federal government didn't do anything for me then and won't now. The Federal government is no damn good. What are you wasting our time for?" He thereafter told Agents to go ahead and interview his wife. King remained present during the interview. b7(c)

Mrs. King was interviewed and furnished a signed statement in which she alleges she was pushed, kicked, and shoved to the ground, by two unidentified police officers outside Mitchell County Jail. Mrs. King is five and one-half months pregnant. Attending physician, Dr. Jacob L. Shurley appeared before interview was over and advised of bruises on Mrs. King and that unborn fetus appeared to be alright.

Other known witnesses will be interviewed today and attempts made to identify and interview subjects.

Dear [REDACTED]

This year the National Maritime Union completes its first quarter-century of service to American seamen and the maritime industry.

This year is also Joseph Curran's 25th as head of that union - and as a dedicated leader of American labor.

And this year the ~~V~~Ghandi Society for Human Rights was established under the honorary presidency of the Rev. Martin Luther King. note

The concurrence of these very important events makes it possible to celebrate all three at a dinner at the new Americana of New York, October 23, 1962.

Four distinguished Americans - Admiral John M. Will, chairman and president, American Export Lines; Mr. A. J. Hayes, president, International Association of Machinists; Mr. Ralph Casey, president, American Merchant Marine Institute; Mr. Walter P. Reuther, president, United Auto Workers of America, honorary co-chairmen of the dinner committee, join me in inviting you to be a member of the honorary committee for this triple event.

This committee, made up of leading representatives of industry, labor, and government, will honor a union and a man - they sometimes appear synonymous - that have raised the status, the economic position, and the dignity of our civilian mariners. In so doing, they have increased the economic stability of their industry.

Study Data On Eastland Probe Figure

Hunter Pitts O'Dell, former New Orleans waiter from whose home police seized feared SA Communist propaganda, may be the first person to be cited under the Louisiana law requiring Reds to register.

Assistant Police Supt. Guy Banister said today intelligence officers of the police bureau of investigation, which Banister heads, are now studying all evidence against the Negro with an eye toward bringing charges into the courts.

O'Dell, a 34-year-old man, was arrested in July 1950. He is charged with being a Communist or member of Red-front organizations in violation of the state department's public safety.

O'Dell, whose whereabouts are now not known to police, appeared before the US Senate's internal security subcommittee at a hearing in Washington after failing to show up for a committee session here.

Study of Evidence

Sgt. Hubert Badreau, a member of Banister's staff, today estimated it will take about six months to complete the entire study of all the evidence against O'Dell.

Documents, books, Communist party directives and other items linking O'Dell to Communism were taken from his home and residence at 2115 Louisiana by police prior to the trial. The items seized by the Senate committee, at which O'Dell did not appear.

Investigators of the subcommittee, headed by Sen. James O. Eastland of Mississippi, described O'Dell as Communist organizer for the New Orleans area. Eastland issued a statement after hearings that he was convinced Reds were operating in this section.

O'Dell, in his appearance before the Eastland committee in Washington, O'Dell defied the investigators in refusing to answer questions about his alleged Red activities. He talked back to Sen. Eastland and other committee members and staff members.

Sen. O'DELL - Page 6

helped their investigation an "inquisition" and calling Eastland an "enemy of the Negro people."

If convicted of violating the state law requiring Communists to register, O'Dell would face a possible penalty of 2 to 10 years in prison and/or $1000 to $10,000 fine.

HUNTER O'DELL

O'Dell Test Of La. Law?

Hunter "Pitts" O'Dell, the former New Orleans waiter from whose home boxes of Communist literature were taken by police, may provide the first test case for the new Louisiana law requiring Communists to register with the state attorney-general.

Police are now cataloguing evidence which could result in O'Dell, a Negro, being brought to trial. His whereabouts are not now known. Asst. Police Supt. Banister said a trial is "definitely being planned."

O'Dell appeared as a "Fifth Amendment" witness before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee in Washington and had a running battle of words with the subcommittee chairman, Sen. James Eastland of Mississippi.

Banister's chief aide, Sgt. Hubert Badeaux, is assembling the evidence. Badeaux had participated in the raid which seized reams of Red books and pamphlets from O'Dell's former home.

C Dell Agrees To Appear at D.C. Red Probe

Harriet "Pats" O'Dell, key figure sought for two weeks for questioning by a U.S. Senate committee investigating communism in New Orleans, has agreed to appear before the group in Washington.

O'Dell, whose whereabouts are still undisclosed, sent word through an attorney to chief counsel Robert Morris of the internal security subcommittee that he will be on hand Thursday.

The committee, which held two days of public hearings in New Orleans last week, resumes its probe of alleged Red infiltration into organizations in this area in Washington tomorrow. Scheduled to appear first are Robert Blanchard, former New Orleans TV artist, and his wife, Winifred. They would not come back here from New York to be questioned.

Alleged Organizer

Investigators describe O'Dell, a Negro, as Communist party organizer for this district. Hundreds of documents were seized at his residence at 2319 Louisiana and introduced as evidence at the New Orleans hearings. These books and papers included directives from Moscow, lists of code names, aliases, political candidates and school officials.

Morris said an attorney representing O'Dell telephoned Washington from New York that his client would be ready to appear Thursday.

Subcommittee investigators say O'Dell has been operating under three different aliases, with social security cards for each assumed identity.

Eastland Returns

Sen. James O. Eastland of Mississippi, subcommittee chairman, was returning to Washington today from his home, where he spent the Easter recess.

A capacity crowd is expected in the Senate office buildings for the hearings beginning tomorrow.

High lights of the hearings in New Orleans last week were the refusal of seven witnesses to answer questions about Communist activities and the forcible ejection of the persons from the hearing room.

Hunter O'Dell Named In Subversive Action

State Names Alleged Red On 3 Counts

The Orleans parish district attorney's office today lodged three charges of subversive activities against Hunter "Pitts" O'Dell, former New Orleans Negro waiter accused of being the ranking Communist organizer in Louisiana.

They are the first such charges filed in state history.

O'Dell, whose whereabouts are unknown to authorities, is charged with belonging to a subversive organization, taking part in the management of such an organization, and advocating overthrow of the federal and state governments.

Assistant district attorney Philip Trice filed the three separate charges, each containing several counts. He said they are based on extensive investigation conducted by police Sgt. Hubert Badeaux.

Defied Probers

O'Dell, from whose former residence at 3718 Louisiana St.

NEW ORLEANS STATIS
NEW ORLEANS, LA.,

3/25/58

he seized Communist literature, directives and propaganda, defied congressional investigators at a hearing in Washington and refused to answer questions about alleged Red activity.

Trice recommended bond of $5000 on each charge for a total of $15,000.

O'Dell could spend the rest of his life in prison if convicted of several of the many counts involved in the three charges.

Trice said the charges are made on the basis of the state subversive activities law and the statute dealing with criminal anarchy.

Specific Charges

These are the specific charges:

1. Remaining a member of a subversive organization, knowing the nature of said organization; remaining a member of a foreign subversive organization, knowing the nature of said organization.

2. Participating knowingly in the management of a subversive organization; contributing knowingly to such an organization; participating knowingly in the management of a foreign subversive organization; contributing knowingly to said organization.

3. Advocating and teaching the subversion, opposition and destruction of the government of the United States and of the state of Louisiana by violence and other unlawful means.

O'Dell—

Trice said O'Dell was a member of an organization and society known to him to advocate, teach and practice such subversion, opposition and destruction.

The former waiter is charged as J. H. O'Dell, alias Hunter "Pitts" O'Dell, John Veazey, Ben Jones, no local address.

Each charge also contains a count alleging that prescription has not set in—that it is not too late to prosecute.

The offenses set out in the charges took place between Aug. 1, 1954, and March 29, 1956, it is charged.

If convicted, O'Dell could be sentenced to a fine up to $5000 and/or one to five years in prison on any count on the first charge; up to $20,000 fine and/or one to 20 years in prison on any count of the second charge, and up to 10 years in prison on any count of the third charge.

When and if authorities find O'Dell, he will face trial in criminal district court in New Orleans on the charges.

Chief counsel Robert Morris of the US Senate internal security subcommittee headed by Sen. James O. Eastland of Mississippi alleged O'Dell was the district party organizer for Louisiana.

Sgt. Badeaux led the raid on O'Dell's former residence which resulted in seizure of papers, books, pamphlets and other materials linked to communism. These were introduced at a hearing conducted in New Orleans by Sen. Eastland and his subcommittee in April last year.

O'Dell was subpoenaed to appear at the New Orleans hearing but could not be found. He appeared at the late hearing in Washington, where he not only refused to answer questions but shouted defiantly at investigators.

Cite O'Dell Under La. Anti-Red Act

J. H. (Hunter Pitts) O'Dell, former New Orleans waiter who was a storm center at Senate anti-Communist hearings, was charged three times under the state anti-Communist laws today.

He is believed to be the first man charged under these laws.

O'Dell generally was charged with advocating and teaching overthrow of the U. S. government by force, and with being a member of a subversive organization.

He is charged on several counts in each charge.

Police said that a raid on his residence, in April, 1956, yielded the latest directives sent from Moscow to the Communist Party in the United States.

O'DELL, A NEGRO, appeared as a witness before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee in Washington and had a running battle of words with the subcommittee chairman, Sen. James Eastland of Mississippi.

The evidence which led to the filing of the charges against O'Dell was assembled in a year's investigation by Sgt. Hubert Badeaux of the police department's intelligence bureau. The charges were filed by Asst. Dist. Atty. Phil Trice.

The first charge says (1) O'Dell participated knowingly in the management of a subversive organization; (2) contributed to such organization knowingly; (3) participated knowingly in the management of a foreign subversive organization; (4) contributed knowingly to aid of this organization. Date of the alleged offense was cited as June 1, 1954, to March 29, 1956.

THE SECOND CHARGE alleges that O'Dell (1) remained a member of a subversive organization though he knew its nature, and (2) remained a member of a foreign subversive organization though he knew its nature.

The third charge alleges that O'Dell (1) advocated and taught the subversion, opposition and destruction of the government of the United States and the state of Louisiana by violence and other unlawful means, and (2) organized and became a member of an organization and society known to him to advocate, teach and practice such subversion, opposition and destruction.

O'Dell Faces New Charge As Secret Red

New charges were placed today against Hunter Pitts O'Dell, former New Orleans writer, accused of being the ranking Communist organizer in Louisiana.

District Attorney J. St. Clair Farnum in Baton Rouge filed a charge against O'Dell for failing to register as a Communist.

O'Dell, 40, of the District Office, New Orleans, was indicted last week by Judge Leon D. Hubert. He was charged with three charges against the New Orleans writer, accusing him of remaining a member of a subversive organization, taking part in the management of such an organization, and advocating overthrow of the state and federal governments.

O'Dell, whose whereabouts are not known to authorities, defied congressional investigators at a hearing in Washington last year and refused to answer questions about alleged Red activities.

Communist literature, reports, directives and propaganda were found in a police raid at O'Dell's former residence last year.

CHARGES FILED AGAINST O'DELL

Subversion Laid to Ac- cused Red Leader

Charges carrying a maximum sentence upon conviction amounting to 110 years in jail and fines totaling $90,000 were filed Monday against Hunter Pitts O'Dell, Negro, accused of being the center of the Communist network in this area.

The charges of subversive activities were filed by the Orleans parish district attorney's office against him under the name of J. H. O'Dell, alias Hunter Pitts O'Dell, alias John Vazey, alias Ben Jones. No local address was listed.

This is believed the first time these charges have been used against anyone in Louisiana. All are state charges. Assistant District Attorney Phil Trice recommended bonds totaling $15,000 on the three charges.

Before taking the charges Trice studied evidence gathered by police Sgt. Hubert J. Badeaux, in charge of the division of intelligence of the New Orleans police department. Badeaux refused to comment Monday on the present whereabouts of O'Dell.

Badeaux took more than a year gathering the evidence against O'Dell. On March 29, 1956, Badeaux led a police raid on O'Dell's residence at 2319 Louisiana ave. and seized alleged subversive documents, pamphlets and Communist directives.

Charges Listed

O'Dell was charged with remaining a member of a subversive foreign organization, knowing the nature of said organization (two counts); participating knowingly in the management of a subversive organization; contributing knowingly to such organization; participating in the management of a foreign subversive organization; contributing knowingly to such organization, advocating and teaching the subversion, opposition and destruction of the government of the United States and of the state of Louisiana by violence and other unlawful means and organizing and becoming a member of an organization and society known to him to advocate, teach and practice such subversion, opposition and destruction.

On each count of the first charge, the penalty upon conviction carries a maximum sentence of one to five years in the penitentiary and/or a fine of up to $5,000.

On the next four counts, each count carries a maximum sentence of one to 20 years in the penitentiary and/or fine of up to $20,000 on each count upon conviction.

Dates Back to 1950

On the advocating, teaching and organizing and becoming a member of an organization which advocates, teaches or practices subversion, each of the two counts carries, upon conviction, a maximum sentence of up to 10 years.

The alleged offenses occurred between Aug. 1, 1954, and March 29, 1956. One of the charges dates the alleged offense as beginning Jan. 1, 1950.

O'Dell could not be found when a subpoena was to be served on him to appear before a Senate subcommittee meeting in New Orleans in April last year. He appeared later in Washington before the group where he refused to answer questions and shouted defiantly at investigators.

Chief counsel Robert Morris of the Senate internal security subcommittee described O'Dell as the district party organizer for Louisiana.

On the charges accepted Monday, O'Dell will be tried in the state criminal district court in New Orleans.

Former Resident Charged for Not Filing as Commy

The East Baton Rouge Parish district attorney's office charged Hunter "Hoot" O'Dell, former Baton Rouge resident, with five counts of violating the state's Communist Party registration law.

O'Dell, whose present address is unknown, is believed to be the first person charged with violation of the state law. Maximum penalty upon conviction on all counts is a $50,000 fine or 50 years imprisonment.

The indictments against the Negro were filed yesterday by Dist. Atty. J. St. Clair Favrot. Monday similar charges were filed against O'Dell by the Orleans Parish district attorney.

Favrot said that at one time O'Dell was employed at Ryan Airport and the State Department of Public Safety. He is also believed to have been employed by the Picadilly Cafeteria for a short time.

The charges, filed by Favrot, allege that O'Dell failed to register as a member of the Communist Party while employed by the state between July 30 and Dec. 1, 1952; all of 1953, 1954 and 1955 and between Jan. 1 and March 29, 1956.

On March 30, last year, New Orleans police seized what they called "the finest collection of Communist literature" they had ever seen or heard of in the South from the O'Dell apartment in New Orleans. Although much of the information found in the O'Dell apartment was not revealed it was believed to have contained directives which indicated he was attempting to set up Communist cells in the New Orleans-Baton Rouge area.

Although O'Dell never testified in hearings held in New Orleans last April by a subcommittee of the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee his name figured prominently in the hearings. He was described as the district Communist Party organizer for Louisiana.

Later he appeared at a hearing in Washington, D.C. in which he turned on the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee after refusing to say whether he was a South district organizer for the Communist Party.

that there were no Communist cells in Baton Rouge as far as he knew. At about the same time last year people in Baton Rouge had received pamphlets mailed from New Orleans containing Red propaganda. On April 23, 1956, Mayor-President Jesse Webb, by telegram, urged Sen. Eastland (D-Miss.) to conduct an investigation here, pledging him full support of facilities and personnel in conducting the probe.

O'Dell, a former New Orleans printer and writer, has used aliases of J. H. O'Dell, John A. Jones and Ben Jones.

O'Dell Charged in Baton Rouge

BATON ROUGE, March 27 (AP) — District Attorney J. St. Clair Favrot Wednesday filed charges against J. H. Pitts O'Dell for failure to register in Baton Rouge as a Communist.

Orleans Parish District Attorney Leon Hubert filed similar charges last week against O'Dell, who was a storm center in last year's hearings by the Senate Internal Security subcommittee.

During the hearings in New Orleans, O'Dell was identified as a Communist organizer in Louisiana, centering his activities in New Orleans. He also was reported to have worked in the Baton Rouge area.

Favrot filed bills of information charging O'Dell with Communist activity in Baton Rouge from 1952 to 1956 and said it was "very possible" O'Dell was connected with Communist literature found here last year.

Conviction under the charges, Favrot said, could bring penalties ranging from two to 10 years in jail or $2,000 to $10,000 fines, or both.

O'Dell Called Dedicated Zealot of Communism

By PERRY MULLEN

ATLANTA (AP) — A Montgomery, Ala., Negro insurance man attempted Wednesday to inject a discussion of mistreatment of Negroes in the South into a congressional committee hearing on un-American activities. He was ruled out of order.

The witness, Hunter Pitts O'Dell, was described by committee staff director, Richard Arens, as a "dedicated zealot of the Communist movement."

O'Dell, who said he was an insurance executive and a native of Detroit, tried repeatedly to read a statement outlining what he said was un-American activity against Negroes.

A committee rule was read providing that such statements must be submitted 24 hours in advance of such hearings.

O'Dell countered that an explanation of communism by the committee staff director, Richard Arens, was not prepared in advance. But Rep. Edwin Willis (D-La.), committee chairman, reminded the witness he had asked for a definition of communism when Arens posed the question of whether O'Dell ever had any Communist party connections.

DECLINE TO ANSWER

Arens told the witness the Communist movement began with Karl Marx 100 years ago and that it "intends to destroy this government, the last bastion of freedom in the world."

He then asked O'Dell if he were a member of the Communist party and the latter said he wanted to

Probers Subpoenaed O'Dell in Orleans

Hunter Pitts O'Dell was subpoenaed to appear before the Senate internal security subcommittee sitting in New Orleans in April 1958. He could not be found when the subpoena was served.

Later O'Dell did appear before the subcommittee in Washington, D. C. Chief counsel Robert Morris then described O'Dell as the district organizer for Louisiana.

Before the meeting of the subcommittee in New Orleans, police seized an alleged library of subversive documents, pamphlets and Communist directives from his residence at 8318 Louisiana.

attention to the fact that the very same courts have been used to keep my people segregated in this country," he added.

O'Dell and 10 others subpoenaed for the hearing declined to answer the question of whether they were members of the Communist party. Only one witness questioned by the William Matthews, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a 22-year-old camera plant employee, denied any present or past connection with the party.

The other witnesses declined to answer on the basis of what they termed their constitutional rights under the first and fifth amendments to the constitution.

HEADQUARTERS IN N. O.

The committee, on the second day of a three-day hearing also heard testimony from Louisville, Ky., proponent of racial integration; Frank Wilkinson, connected with the Civil Liberties Union; a Greensboro, N. C., woman textile mill worker; a Chicago writer; a Greensboro, N. C., operator of a landscaping business and a Philadelphia textile mill worker.

Braden, field secretary for the Southern Conference Educational Fund, headquartered in New Orleans, flatly told the committee his business and associations were none of its business. He was freed of a sedition conviction in Kentucky as a result of a U. S. Supreme Court ruling in a parallel case involving Steve Nelson in Pennsylvania.

The committee had earlier asked the committee to state whether it should be inquiring into violence against Negroes and Jews in this section.

To the query whether he was a Communist, Braden said the question had no pertinency and that he stood on "Supreme Court decisions protecting his rights to his own beliefs."

LETTER DISPLAYED

He refused to say whether he wrote a letter of protest against the Atlanta committee hearing; declined to answer questions about Atlanta meetings of the Southern Conference Educational Fund but did identify pictures of himself and others as having been taken at the meetings.

Arens displayed a letter he said was signed by Braden and his wife asking congressmen to oppose bills on security measures. The letter, Arens said, also dealt with the Kentucky conviction of Braden and urged recipients not to vote for weakening the U. S. supreme court.

Braden also declined to say if he was connected with the Southern News Letter, edited by Eugene Feldman. The latter earlier was identified by Armistead and Penha, former FBI undercover men, as a Communist party "colonizer" in the South. Wilkinson refused any identification about himself other than his name and said he did so in cooperation with the civil liberties committee to make a "legal test" of the constitutionality of the provisions of the anti-Communist activities law.

Security Matter - C

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 20, 1962, that on that date, Stanley Levison conversed with Hunter Pitts O'Dell and they discussed the following: [REDACTED] U

Levison stated that in a recent conversation with Martin Luther King, King said he was thinking of getting another administrative assistant. Levison stated that in the past, Levison had not considered it wise for O'Dell to take on such a position but he is the only one who could do the job and should be considered for it. Levison stated as long as O'Dell did not have the title of Executive Director, there would not be "as much lightning flashing around him". O'Dell could be called a Coordinator and still fulfill all the duties of an Executive Director. [REDACTED] U

Levison stated that King liked Levison's suggestion with respect to O'Dell taking this position because King felt that O'Dell must face it sooner or later, "stating" that no matter what a man was, if he could stand up now and say he is not connected, then as far as I am concerned, he is eligible to work for me. [REDACTED] U

Levison then told O'Dell that Levison's brother, Roy Bennett, had been approached by political leaders Mark Lane and John Harrington to run for the State Assembly in New York, but Bennett refused, because he thought "it" would come out. [REDACTED] U

You will recall that I have previously furnished you with information concerning the influence which Stanley David Levison, a secret member of the Communist Party (CP), exerts on King.

According to a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, Levison told Hunter Pitts O'Dell on June 20, 1962, that in a recent conversation with King, King said he was thinking of getting another administrative assistant. When Levison recommended O'Dell for the job, King said he liked the suggestion, adding, "No matter what a man was, if he could stand up now and say he is not connected, then as far as I am concerned, he is eligible to work for me." It is noted that O'Dell was elected under a pseudonym to the National Committee of the CP, USA, at the 14th National Convention of the CP, USA, in December, 1959.

The Mark Lane referred to is believed to be the Mark Lane who is a member of the New York State Assembly and was recently defeated for the nomination as Congressman in the 19th Congressional District of New York. He has spoken at rallies and has been involved in the activities of subversive groups since 1953. John Harrington has not been further identified.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 11, 1962, that on that date, Martin Luther King visited the office of Stanley Levison, 6 East 39th Street, New York City. ~~CX~~

Levison, at this time, told King that he was glad that King had followed his advice in calling off a planned sit-in demonstration in Atlanta, following the plane crash which took the lives of many prominent Atlantans. King agreed it was a good idea, a smart move which undoubtedly achieved better feelings toward his group. ~~CX~~

Levison and King discussed future affairs planned by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). King detailed one in particular which they planned to hold at the Waldorf Hotel, indicating it would be scaled at $25.00 a plate with an expected attendance of 1,000. Levison commented that he thought it was priced too high and thought that 300 would be a more accurate figure for attendance. ~~CX~~

Levison and King then discussed a new book authored by the lawyer, Edward Bennett Williams. Levison stated that Williams, in his book, the part concerned with civil rights, develops the same line that he, Levison, set out in the "speech". This is apparently a reference to the recent speech prepared for King by Levison. They both agreed that the similarity of development of thought, as contained in Williams' book and the speech, was amazing. ~~CX~~

Re: Martin Luther King

King then mentioned that a group is attempting to make arrangements for him to appear in a television series which would provide a vehicle for the transmission of his philosophy. He said that this group has already talked to sponsors and to the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) and Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) studios. Levison commented that this possibility should be closely followed. ~~SECRET~~

Following the discussion in the office, Levison accompanied King to the airline terminal, King indicating he was leaving the city that afternoon. ~~SECRET~~

SECURITY MATTER - C

Re New York letter 6-4-62 concerning Stanley David Levison and New York letter 5-29-62 concerning Hunter Pitts O'dell.

Albany, Atlanta, and Mobile are requested to check appropriate New York, Georgia, and Alabama State records to determine if the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) has registered as a charitable organization. If registered, furnish Bureau pertinent information and two Photostats of registration forms if they can be discreetly obtained. The Bureau is particularly desirous of obtaining public source information indicating that O'dell and Levison are officers of the SCLC. For information of Albany, O'dell is a key figure of the New York Office and in charge of the New York office of the SCLC.

New York, Atlanta, and Mobile are requested to determine if SCLC stationery lists either O'dell or Levison as officers in its letterhead. New York is requested to advise if the door to the SCLC office has O'dell's name printed thereon and if the telephone and city directories list him as an officer of the SCLC.

All investigation conducted in this matter must be handled in a most discreet manner to preclude the possibility of disclosing the identities of informants or causing embarrassment to the Bureau.

Submit results of investigation in this matter to reach the Bureau within ten days of the receipt of this letter.

ReBulet to NY, dated 5/9/62, entitled, "MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.; SM-C."

Per Bureau instructions, LEVISON has been designated a key figure and appropriate FD-122 has been submitted.

It should be noted that with respect to the Bureau's request of any public source information concerning LEVISON's association with KING, the Albany office by letter dated 5/17/61, entitled, "HUNTER PITTS O'DELL; IS-C; ISA-1950" furnished the following information:

The records of the Charities Registration Bureau of the New York State Department of Social Welfare, 91 State Street, as furnished to SA [REDACTED] b [REDACTED] on May 11, 1961, revealed:

b7(c)

The Committee to Aid the Southern Freedom Struggle, 312 West 125th Street, New York 27, filed the required State Registration Form on December 6, 1960. It reflected that the organization had been established on November 1, 1960, at New York City, and that the general purpose was to give support to the movement for constitutional and civil rights in the South through furnishing of technical assistance and dissemination of educational material, public education through meetings, legal aid to victims of discrimination, and support by financial means of local groups in the south, carrying these aims.

The Carnegie Hall Tribute to MARTIN LUTHER KING was designated as the name of the organization under which funds would be solicited and the reason for having this name was "simplification." The following officers were listed:

A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, 2588 7th Avenue, New York City
Co-chairman;

Reverend GARDNER C. TAYLOR, 333 Marcy Avenue,
Brooklyn, New York
Co-chairman;

Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, 563 Johnson Avenue,
Atlanta, Georgia
Co-chairman;

HARRY BELAFONTE, 300 Westend Avenue, New York City
Co-chairman;

Reverend THOMAS KILGORE, Jr., 144 West 131st Street,
New York City
Executive Director;

STANLEY D. LEVISON, 100-11 67th Road,
Forrest Hills, New York
Assistant Director.

An annual report is due from this organization within six months after October 31, 1961.

A second file on the Committee to Defend MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr. and the Struggle for Freedom in the South, 312 West 125th Street, New York 27, was reviewed [REDACTED] because of the identical addresses and the similarity of many of the officers.

b7(c)

The Registration report required by New York State was filed on August 11, 1960, and reflected:

The organization was started on March 7, 1960, at New York City by means of the adoption of resolutions by a conference. A six months report is due on June 30, 1961. The purpose of the organization was to support the movement for desegregation in the south through various forms of public education and financial contributions. The object of the fund raising was to underwrite the legal expenses for the defense of MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr., Reverend RALPH ABERNATHY, Reverend S.S. SAEY, Reverend J.E. LOWERY and Reverend F.L. SHUTTLESWORTH, the dissemination of educational materials through periodicals, letters and meetings, the provision to students of financial aid, the extension of facilities for organization, provisions of financial support, and technical assistance to Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

The officers were listed as:

A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, 217 West 125th Street,
New York City - Chairman;

Reverend GARDNER C. TAYLOR, 833 Marcy Avenue,
Brooklyn, New York - Chairman;

HOPE STEVENS, 310 Lenox Avenue, New York City - Board Chairman;

Reverend THOMAS KILGORE, Jr., 144 West 131st Street,
New York City - Chairman of Religious Commission;

HARRY BELAPONTE, 300 Westend Avenue, New York
City - Chairman of the Cultural Commission;

SIDNEY POITIER, 55 West 55th Street, New York
City - Chairman of the Cultural Commission;

BAYARD RUSTIN, 203 West 107th Street
New York City - Executive Director;

STANLEY D. LEVISON, 255 West 106th
Street - Assistant Executive Director.

Albany should attempt to obtain a copy of the records containing the above information and furnish same to the Bureau and New York if this information is from a public source.

Report on LEVISON to follow. 255 West 106th St. is a former address of the subject. NY will attempt to ascertain if 100-11 67th Rd., Forrest Hills, New York, is also a former address of LEVISON.

A review of the NY file on O'DELL reveals the following public source information concerning his subversive background:

1. The record of the Hearings before the HCUA, 86th Congress, Second Session, entitled, "United States Training Operations", Part 2, reflect that O'DELL testified before this Committee, on February 3, 1960, at Washington, D.C. At that time, O'DELL plead the Fifth Amendment on questions relating to whether he was a member of the Communist Party, on questions concerning alleged CP activities and on a question concerning the authorship of an article appearing in "Political Affairs", of August, 1956.

On the same date, ALBERT GAILLARD testified before the HCUA as to his knowledge of O'DELL being a member of the CP, how he came to know O'DELL and the details of his being sent to South Carolina on a Party assignment by O'DELL.

2. The record of the Hearings before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, 84th Congress, Second Session on the "Scope of Soviet Activity in The United States", reflect that O'DELL testified at Washington, D.C., on April 12, 1956. He declined to answer questions as to his membership in the CP or his CP activities, on grounds of the Fifth Amendment.

3. The record of the Hearings conducted by the HCUA, 85th Congress, Second Session, in Atlanta, Georgia, on July 29, 30 and 31, 1958, entitled, "Communist Infiltration and Activities in The South", reflect that O'DELL testified on July 30, 1958, and took refuge under the 1st and 5th Amendments, concerning his CP membership.

4. "The New York Times" of April 13, 1956, Page 9, contains an article "Witness Accuses Red Inquiry Head". This article states that HUNTER PITTS O'DELL of New Orleans, refused to state whether he was a southern district organizer for the CP and accused the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee of invading his rights as a citizen. He invoked the Fifth Amendment, in response to questions concerning his activities on behalf of the CP in New Orleans, and demanded the expulsion of Senator EASTLAND from the Senate.

5. "The New York Times" of July 31, 1958, contains an article "Witness Balked in Inquiry on Reds". This article states that HUNTER PITTS O'DELL, who was "...called a 'dedicated zealot of the Communist movement' tried unsuccessfully today to turn a Congressional committee hearing on un-American activities into a discussion of mistreatment of Negroes in the South". The article states that O'DELL attempted repeatedly to read a two page statement and declined to answer questions as to whether he was a member of the CP.

6. The "Daily Worker" of July 5, 1950, Page 4, Column 2, contains an article "Texas NMU Ousts Seaman for Circulating Peace Plan". This article, datelined July 4, 1950 at Galveston, Texas, states, in part, that "HUNTER O'DELL, Negro seaman who sailed during World War II, was expelled from the CIO National Maritime Union for circulating peace petitions aboard the SS Simon Benson. The chargeswere, that O'DELL violated the infamous anti-Communist/No. 8, and was working against the government."

7. The magazine, "Political Affairs", of August, 1956, contains an article attributed to

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL, on Page 13, which is entitled, "The Political Scene in Louisiana".

8. "The Mobile Reigster", a newspaper of July 31, 1958, in an article captioned, "Probers Hit Snag in Quiz of Witnesses", comments on O'DELL's appearance before the HCUA in Atlanta, Georgia, on July 30, 1958. This article described O'DELL as one of the most belligerent witnesses to appear before the Committee and said that he refused to state whether or not he was a Communist.

9. "The New Orleans States", a newspaper in its issue of May 8, 1956, carried a story to the effect that the assistant superintendent of police stated that intelligence officers of the New Orleans Police Bureau of Investigation, were studying evidence against O'DELL, with an eye toward bringing the case into court under a state law passed in July, 1952, requiring all Communists to register with the State Department of Public Safety.

10. "The New Orleans Item", a newspaper of March 25, or 27, 1957, contains a story to the effect that O'DELL had been charged on three counts by the Assistant District Attorney, charging him with having knowingly been a member and of participating in a subversive organization and of advocating and teaching the subversion and destruction of the government of the United States and the state of Louisiana, by violence and other unlawful means.

11. "The Morning Advocate", a Baton Rouge newspaper of March 28, 1957, carried a story to the effect that the Baton Rouge Parish District Attorney's Office, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, had filed charges against

TO DOUBLE THE NEGRO VOTE
IN THE SOUTH

... to secure these rights to ourselves and our posterity ...

THE NEGRO VOTER IN THE SOUTH

THE FACTS

There are more than 5 million Negroes of voting age in the South.

Only 75% of adult Negroes vote compared with 60% white adults.

Burns of voters lists, "slowdowns" by registrars, opening the registration office only one or two days a month and at hours that are not helpful for working people, and open intimidation by plantation bosses and local sheriffs, all play a part in discouraging the Negro citizen from becoming a registered voter.

As a result, "government by consent of the governed", upon which our nation was founded in 1776, is a goal still to be made a reality in most of the South today.

Most of the present crop of Southern Senators and Congressmen can be counted on to oppose and even filibuster all legislation designed to protect the voting rights of citizens of this region.

THIS SITUATION CAN BE CHANGED

In spite of these obstacles Negro citizens are struggling daily to double the number of voters and to secure the right to representation in government.

Even the most die-hard segregationist in public office can be made to respect voting power. Furthermore, we know there are many liberal white citizens in the South who are counting on the Negro vote to achieve such a size as to make it possible for liberal voices to be heard in the government.

The whole nation will benefit from an enlarged Negro vote in the South. This area of our country can elect men and women of good will and a sense of justice to Congress and to local state legislatures.

Let all who believe in freedom and human dignity join in the great CRUSADE FOR THE BALLOT!

Young people in Macon, Georgia in line at the County Courthouse to become new registered voters. In a Ninety-day Campaign during 1962, Negroes in Macon doubled their voting power.

All over the South, people at the grass-roots level are joining the CRUSADE FOR THE BALLOT.

CRUSADE FOR THE BALLOT

TO DOUBLE THE NEGRO VOTE IN THE SOUTH

President, SCLC

HOW

- ✓ To educate and stimulate Negroes to exercise the vote.
- ✓ To help them obtain the right to vote where in practice it does not exist.

ORGANIZE

- ✓ SCLC will help your community organize registration schools, workshops, local leaders, public meetings and voter registration and provide material when requested.

IN UNITY THERE IS STRENGTH

- ✓ No narrow partisan interest must be allowed to divide us in reaching a cross-section of the Negro community, the Crusade will move across party lines.

NONVIOLENCE

- ✓ It is for the good of the local community that all civic, church, fraternal and other organizations cooperate in this effort.
- ✓ The Freedom Movement in the Deep South is a nonviolent one. It is not a new day of progress and human rights for all Americans for government come.

Police had committed in recent years. The party produced a scapegoat for the "branches of Socialism" that led to the involvement of hundreds and thousands of persons and some of "illegal methods" in the confessions. The scapegoat was Rudolf Slansky, an editorial in Rude's paper, the Czechoslovak people, for the first time that Slansky's former First Secretary was not going to be able to be executed or imprisoned. Communist leaders in Poland, Hungary, and Bulgaria, who had been abused were heaped on Slansky, who was put to death in November, 1952, with other party officials. They were convicted of a wide range of crimes. Those against Slansky included espionage on behalf of the Western powers, sabotage, Titoism and conspiracy.

A national radio no mention of Vladimir Clementis, former Foreign Minister, who was general co-defendant with Slansky and died with him. He was chairman of the Czechoslovak National People's Council in Moscow last year. The Clementis case had been reviewed and that case had been found a dud. It was not reported here that the Clementis may have been found guilty of the crime for his public version.

Pravda said a campaign of "renewed energy" for the period of May 1953 was being launched. The campaign included a number of "new" laws, which would have been used to punish the "new" laws. The campaign was to be a "new" campaign, which would have been used to punish the "new" laws. The campaign was to be a "new" campaign, which would have been used to punish the "new" laws.

Prof. Courtland D. Perkins

Special to The New York Times
PRINCETON, N. J., April 12 — Prof. Courtland D. Perkins, chairman of the Department of Aeronautical Engineering at Princeton University, will replace Dr. H. Geyford Stever as Chief Scientist of the United States Air Force.

His appointment was announced today by Gen. Nathan F. Twiss, Air Force Chief of Staff, at the spring meeting of the Scientific Advisory Board at the Air Force Base in Florida.

Professor Perkins presently combines teaching on both the undergraduate and graduate levels with basic research in the area of airplane stability and control at extremely high speeds. He will be on leave from the university during the term of his appointment as Chief Scientist.

He is the author of numerous technical articles and of the textbook, "Airplane Stability and Control," published in 1947.

Communists' Tax Case Put Off

A hearing on a motion by the Communist Party to postpone the government's case against the party's tax evasion charges was postponed today. The government's case was to be heard in the U.S. District Court in New York City. The hearing was postponed until a later date.

Communist writings. Robert M. Hutchins, president of the fund, announced yesterday that its directors had allotted $25,000 for preparation and distribution of a second edition of the 171-page work. Prof. Joel Seidman of the University of Chicago will have direct charge of the revision under the supervision of Prof. Clinton Rossiter of Cornell University.

The revision will be conducted as part of a study of communism in the United States now being made by Professor Rossiter and a team of scholars and researchers. This study has been financed by previous grants of $500,000 from the Fund for the Republic. It is to produce in two years eleven books on the Communist party's efforts to penetrate American cultural, political, social and economic life.

Critics Express Pleasure

The American Committee for Cultural Freedom, which had criticized the bibliography, expressed pleasure on hearing that the fund had provided for the revision. The committee said it hoped the new version would replace "the inadequate version that is now available to students."

The fund, which is a creation of the Ford Foundation, has distributed 1,500 sets of the bibliography to educational institutions, libraries, government agencies and private individuals. A pointer in for the fund said it had no plans to call in the first edition, but the revised edition would be made available to the public. The supply of the first edition has been exhausted.

Plans for a revision in a state, which would be by the fund, and the revision had been decided on to meet "technical" criticisms of the bibliography. He said his colleagues in 1949 or 1952, was on hand to deliver a keynote address tomorrow.

"It would be disturbing if any campaign," nationally, Republicans would be considering the decision to consider the chances of an unyielding Gov. Edmund S. Muskie. The Governor would have been "compelled" to be elected in 1954.

MAINE G.O.P. WARNED OF 'ROUGH CAMPAIGN'

Special to The New York Times
PORTLAND, Me., April 12 — Maine Republicans opened their biennial convention today with a warning that President Eisenhower's re-election was "by no means in the bag."

The warning was sounded by Fred C. Scribner Jr., National Committeeman and general counsel of the Treasury Department.

Since this is an election year, the convention's principal business will be to choose sixteen delegates to the national convention at San Francisco in August. All sixteen votes will go to President Eisenhower. Early indications were that the delegates also favored Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Gov. Theodore R. McKelvin of Maryland, who put General Eisenhower's name in nomination, said he was on hand to deliver a keynote address tomorrow. In addition to Mr. Scribner's warning about "a rough, tough fight," nationally, Republicans here are worried over their chances of an unyielding Gov. Edmund S. Muskie. The Governor would have been "compelled" to be elected in 1954.

Internal Security subcommittee of invading his rights as a citizen.

Hunter Pitts O'Dell accused the group's chairman, Senator James O. Eastland, Democrat of Mississippi, of being anti-labor and anti-Negro. Occasionally he switched his attack to the subcommittee's counsel, Robert Morris. At one point he asked Mr. Morris if he was "some kind of dictator or something."

Mr. Morris said the subcommittee had received information that the witness was a district organizer for the Communist party in New Orleans, "giving directives to the professional group" there and operating under three different names.

Mr. O'Dell invoked the Fifth Amendment protection against possible self-incrimination in refusing to answer questions about this. He also refused to answer questions about what Mr. Morris described as a considerable amount of "Communist party literature and directives" found in a room he formerly occupied. The witness accused the subcommittee of unlawful search.

let Mr. O'Dell read a prepared statement he had brought with him after Mr. Morris said it had not been submitted twenty-four hours in advance as required by subcommittee rules.

In the statement Mr. O'Dell accused the Senator of leading a conspiracy to promote lawlessness in the South and urged his expulsion from the Senate.

As the hearing ended, Mr. Morris told the witness: "We have received information that you have been writing speeches of people running for public office in Louisiana."

"What is Eastland afraid of?" Mr. O'Dell said. "Is he afraid that the people will get to know him if I write speeches?"

Boys Flee Prep School Fire

SALTSBURG, Pa., April 12 — Fire swept the "old main" building of Kiski Preparatory School early today. Seventeen teen-aged boys fled to safety from a third-floor dormitory together with several faculty members. Damage to the eighty-seven-year-old building was estimated at $250,000 to $300,000.

WITNESS ACCUSES RED INQUIRY HEAD

New Orleans Waiter, Called Party Organizer, Urges
Eastland's Expulsion

WASHINGTON, April 12 (AP)

—A Negro waiter from New Orleans, refusing to say whether he was a Southern district organizer for the Communist party, today accused the Senate Internal Security subcommittee of invading his rights as a citizen.

Hunter Pitts O'Dell accused the group's chairman, Senator
James O. Eastland, Democrat of Mississippi, of being anti-labor and anti-Negro. Occasionally he mittee had received information that the witness was a district group" there and operating under three different names.

fusing to answer questions about this. He also refused to answer questions about what Mr. Morris amount of "Communist party literature and directives" found in a room he formerly occupied members. Damage to the eighty-this material. He demanded to

Also found in the room, Mr.
Morris told the subcommittee, were Social Security cards in the names of John Vesey and Ben
Jones. He said these indicated
Mr. O'Dell had been "operating under three identities."

Senator Eastland directed that

ON-THE-SPOT REPORT

The Political Scene in Louisiana

By HUNTER O'DELL

Louisiana is one of the "Deep South" states and has been so economically, socially, politically, and culturally since admitted into the Union in 1812. Like its neighboring state, Texas, on the west, it has experienced considerable industrialization since the end of World War II, and like its neighbor state, Mississippi, on the east, the hangovers of plantation economy and its slavery time ideas, customs, and institutions still weigh heavily upon the life of the people of Louisiana.

The growth of the oil, aluminum, chemical, rubber, and other industries over the past ten years represents more than one billion dollars in capital investments in new plants. Their owners are among the biggest names in Northern finance: Capital Standard Oil (Rockefeller), with its huge refinery in Baton Rouge; Shell Oil Company, with its more than a quarter million acres under lease in Louisiana; the Freeport Mining Corporation (Morgan), with a monopoly on the mining of sulphur in which Louisiana is the leading state in the nation; Kaiser Aluminum; and American Cyanamide, a giant in the chemical industry. These, taken together with the growth in the number of industrial workers in the state, are the new forces in Louisiana's economic life.

Likewise in the transportation sector of the economy, New Orleans has been for several years the second largest port in the U.S. in volume of trade (close to $2 billion annually), and newly opened port facilities at Bayou Rouge represent an important step toward developing Louisiana's 1,500 mile system of inland waterways. An overall result of this industrialization continues has been the growing urbanization of Louisiana's population. Today Louisiana is one of the three Southern states most of whose population (67 per cent) lives in cities or rural towns (the other two states are Texas and Florida).

UPW Organizer Tells of His Experience in Canal Zone Jail citizens can serve on juries, it means that the juries amount to gold only.

Despite these handicaps, the union was making progress in its fight against rigid segregation laws. Gold and silver coins were removed from drinking fountains, lavatories and other places. The union was fighting on all fronts, economic and social.

It had to be stopped, Washington decided. And the Negroes got themselves in a huddle in the war drive and in the making policies of top CIO. They framed men like Sachs, one of the first victims of the war drive.

The UPW had an organization of 18,000, nearly all the Negroes who worked in the Zone. But while the UPW leaders were barred from functioning, the CIO was waved in, and got help from the white overlords.

18,000 MEMBERS

"When we first went in in 1948," Sachs said, "we got 18,000 members in a few weeks. Recently the CIO called a mass meeting. Eighty people showed up. They only claim 2500 members and a good part of these are agents, provocateurs whom our members kicked out."

The CIO's outfit is a company union, and the workers know it. They're not falling for it.

The segregation pattern was extended even to the prison, Sachs noted. Most of the prisoners were Negroes as were most of the guards. But only white guards were permitted to guard white prisoners.

The double standard goes for everything. And one of the worst is in the courts. A Negro hasn't got a chance. He can be and is arrested on the slightest excuse. And that means jail.

The Negro workers in the Canal Zone are not being intimidated, however, and neither will they to lead millions all over the world. Other protests for the peace president from (Bellingham) Rick McCarty, Port Angeles and other unions that have 200 Hope Lodge 79, International Branch Marine Cooks & Stewards Workers and the Office & Firm expected to take similar action in endorsement of the peace drive.

So he spoke up against it and wound up in a Panama Canal Zone jail for eight months. Sachs had come back in Washington, to rejoin his wife and two month-old son Stephen, born while his dad was in jail. Sachs was International representative for the United Public Workers in the Canal Zone and we spoke to him in the New York office of the union where his colleagues gathered to welcome him.

"What did they jail you for?" he was asked.

"For union organizing and for fighting the double standard. But that wasn't the charge. The charge was criminal libel."

It sounded like the old "conspiracy" charge on which union organizers used to be jailed years ago. It was.

5. Consul Against War

Negro workers are referred to as "silver" workers, whites as "gold" workers. All the whites come from the United States, virtually all the Negroes are citizens of Panama. What it boils down to is that whites get even better pay than at home, while the "silver" workers average 16 cents an hour. That's four cents better than before the UPW came in.

Furthermore, virtually all the Government and power companies are white men who own the Southern Railway, who own some of the sugar fields in Panama, and who own the Panama Canal. And only U.S.

Marc Beats Truman Veto Of Pay Hike for P.O. Vets

By Harry Raymond
World War II veterans in the Post Office Department get wage boosts this year they can thank the American Labor Party and Rep. Vito Marcantonio. President Truman had vetoed a bill to grant workers in the postal service who are veterans of the late World War a $100 year.

The whole thing amounted to a pay grade increase for every year of postal employment. Many critics charged that the bill was a "far-reaching step in an undesirable direction."

Truman, whose buddies are opposing Marcantonio's reelection, called the pay bill a "far-reaching step in an undesirable direction." He vetoed the measure and called on Democrats in Congress to uphold him.

House Democratic leaders quietly assured the President the veto was "in the bag." The stage was all set. The veto was to be upheld quickly by a quick voice vote.

So on Monday, June 26, the Truman forces were quietly mobilized. House leaders sought to send the bill back to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service. The motion was made by District Attorney Murray of Tennessee. There were only a few negative voice votes and the Murray death-blow resolution appeared to have won.

It was at this point that Marcantonio arose on a point of no quorum and forced through a record roll call vote. Congressmen, who were hiding behind the Murray parliamentary maneuver, were compelled to cast their votes on the record in the folks back home and the postal workers would know where they stood.

There was no debate. House leaders, who had planned to uphold the veto in a voice vote, scurried into the chamber. Many Truman congressmen admitted they had to side with the herd on this one.

There were two roll call votes, one to recommit which failed 167 to 115, the other to override which won 213 to 72.

This was the first major setback suffered by Truman in the Democratic-controlled 81st Congress. Members on both sides of the House admit the postal workers were upheld only through the alert intervention of New York's Labor Party congressman.

The veto must still be acted on by the Senate. The outcome there is uncertain.

But whatever happens, postal workers throughout the Nation know today that it was Vito Marcantonio, of the 18th Congressional District of New York, who struck the blow that caused the Truman Administration lines in the House to break.

Those Truman stalwarts who voted to strike down Truman's snub of postal workers did so because they would not dare to return home and ask for the people's votes if the record showed they supported the President on this vital issue of civil service wages.

Yes, the postal workers can surely thank Rep. Vito Marcantonio.

HARLEMITES ASSAIL ARREST OF HAYWOOD PATTERSON

By Frank Eyro
Harlemites interviewed by this reporter on the arrest and Detroit of Haywood Patterson, Scottsboro victim, by the FBI indicated their indignation over the use of the FBI as bloodhounds for the Alabama lynchings.

James D. Banks, an ex-shipshoreman now working as a taxi driver, indignantly declared: "It's as bad as it was during slavery time when the government used to be policemen for the slave owners, when they used to take the slaves back to their old masters down South. I think it's a crying shame if they send Haywood back to that rotten jail in Alabama. He beat a death rap down there three times already. This time, those Districts will kill him sure as I'm standing here."

"Once the FBI can get away with something like this, they'll be picking people up anywhere and anytime they feel like it. In my opinion, they overstepped their authority," Banks added.

F. J. Smith, a clerical worker of Pacific St., Brooklyn, had the following to say: "I think the action of the FBI agent was not only wrong but illegal."

"I also think Earl Conrad was right when he said that Alabama prison officials want revenge on Patterson because of his exposure of the criminal prison conditions in Alabama as described in Patterson's and Conrad's book. It is also very significant that this interstate fugitive law has rarely been invoked in recent years except against Negroes. To me, it looks like an instrument for their private oppression."

Herman Lester, a delivery man of W. 135 St., stated: "I think the whole Scottsboro case was a frame-up from the beginning. Patterson and the others were jailed for a crime they never committed. Now the FBI come in and want to send him back to Alabama."

"I hope the judge in Detroit sets Patterson free. If not, the Governor of Alabama should give him a full pardon right away and end the whole rotten mess. One thing for sure, if Patterson has to go back to Alabama, the prison authorities will either kill him or have him killed by some of their hunkies in jail. That's the way they operate down South."

TEXAS NMU OUSTS SEAMAN FOR CIRCULATING PEACE PLAN

CALVESTON, Tex., July 1.—Hunter O'Dell, Negro seaman who sailed during World War II, was expelled from the CIO National Maritime Union here for circulating peace petitions aboard the SS Simon Benson. The charges, pressed by port agent Tex George, were that O'Dell violated the infamous anti-Communist resolution No. 8, and was working against the government.

The peace petition was issued by the United Rank and File Committee. The petition pointed out the effect the cold war is having on jobs and conditions and called for trade with China, the Eastern Democracies and the Soviet Union and for negotiations between the U. S. and USSR. The entire ship's committee signed the petition, along with the crew members. Only two men refused to sign.

The vote on the charges was 89 for, 81 against, with 107 abstaining. Many white seamen voted for O'Dell.

A special meeting aboard ship before a rigged trial committee was called by George after the payoff to present the charges. This was done in order to prevent the crew from taking action as the men were already scattered.

But the real reason Sachs was not in it was the unkindness of the gold standard.

In reference to the American Vigilant Intelligence Federation of Chicago and the location of this information at the present time, this will advise that HARRY A. JUNG, the former manager of the American Vigilant Intelligence Federation of Chicago, for many years maintained certain files containing security information on subject matters throughout the country. Since his death a number of years ago, parts of these files have been sold and dissipated in one way or another, some of them going to a service operated by one HERSCHEL WARD at 420 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago or to the American Security Council, Chicago.

Since Mr. JUNG's death, experience has revealed that these files have passed through so many hands that the source of much of the information contained therein is not known to the present custodians of these records. In view of this and UACB, no effort will be made to locate the records referred to in re New York airtel.

Page 36 of this report reflects that "The Worker" issues of 12/14/47 and 12/21/47, carried articles concerning the ouster of HUDSON by the CIO in Birmingham, Alabama. These articles stated in effect that HUDSON an outstanding CIO leader through ten years of efforts to build Negro-white unity had been ousted because of articles in Red baiting newspapers. u

"The Worker" issue of 12/21/47, reflected that HUDSON had been fired from his job at Jackson Industries, Inc., Birmingham, because of a Red baiting attack in the "Birmingham Post" newspaper. u

Page 36 of this report reflects that an article in the "Birmingham News" dated 3/3/48, reflected that a three man Board of Arbitration had upheld subject's discharge by Jackson Industries, Inc. The Board of Arbitration stated that because subject reportedly was a member of the National Committee of the CP and had been active in soliciting Party membership in the Birmingham District, it had resulted in unrest in the plant where subject was employed, and the question whether HUDSON was or was not a Communist was not a point of issue. It was pointed out that his ouster from the Council and the continued publicity disrupted morale and production in the plant and the employees had petitioned that HUDSON be dismissed. u

Additionally, the Birmingham report of 12/21/60, contains a considerable amount of subversive information all of which was attributed to [REDACTED] b7(D)
[REDACTED] namely: subject attended [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] subject's [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] a Communist in January, 1941, no further information; subject's being special representative of the secretary of the Birmingham CP in 1941. u

Re Atlanta airtels to Bureau, dated 4/10/62 and 4/12/62, and report of SA [REDACTED] dated 4/13/62 at New York. b7(c)

The New York Office has reviewed the information called to its attention in above-referenced airtels.

Information deemed pertinent by the New York Office relating to the Committee to Aid the Southern Freedom Struggle was reported in above-referenced report.

Unless advised to the contrary by the Bureau or by the Atlanta Office, the New York Office is not reporting the information relating to the fact that the New York Friends of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference had an affair for Mrs. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. on 2/22/62 in New York City. The New York Office is not reporting this information due to the fact that the information pertains to the subject's wife and not to the subject, and, because of the fact that no characterization exists for the New York Friends of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

WYATT T. WALKER, Executive Director, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), 41 Exchange Place, S.E., Atlanta, Georgia, advised on May 14, 1962, that SCLC is going to conduct a renewed effort in a voter registration drive in Shreveport, Louisiana. WALKER said he expects a chance of violence from some elements in the white community in view of past experiences. He stated that Dr. SIMPKINS, formerly engaged in voter registration activity, had his house bombed and later burned, and is currently residing in Chicago, Illinois. WALKER advised that the Justice Department was notified of this incident and has had the Federal Bureau of Investigation make an investigation.

WALKER said that he plans to go to Shreveport to set up the renewed effort about May 18-19, 1962. WALKER plans to return to Atlanta after a day or two. He will be followed to Shreveport by FRED BENNETT and BERNARD LEE, Field Secretaries of SCLC, who will leave Atlanta May 21-22, 1962. WALKER and Mrs. DOROTHY COTTON, Secretary, will go about May 31, 1962, and they will be followed by Dr. MARTIN L. KING, JR., President of SCLC, on June 1, 1962. WALKER said they would all be back in Atlanta before June 6, 1962, which is the date of the "Belafonte Show" to be held June 6, 1962, in the Atlanta City Auditorium. WALKER described this as a benefit performance for SCLC.

WALKER stated that Reverend HARRY BLAKE, 2834 Abbie Street, Shreveport, is now acting for SCLC in northern Louisiana in place of Dr. SIMPKINS, and can be contacted for any developments in that area.

Re: Martin Luther King
Security Matter - C

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on May 8, 1962, that on that date Stanley Levison was contacted by an individual on behalf of Martin Luther King [REDACTED] U

The individual stated that Dr. Martin Luther King had asked her to call Levison and ask him if he had a chance to work on the speech for the Packing House Workers (United Packing House Workers of America, AFL - CIO). Levison replied that the speech was all finished except that it had to be typed. Levison inquired as to when King was scheduled to deliver this speech and the individual replied that it would be on May 21, a week from Monday. The individual stated that Dr. King would be in New York City on Thursday, May 17. Levison stated that he would have the speech ready for him at that time. [REDACTED] U

A second individual also contacted Levison on behalf of Martin Luther King on May 8, 1962, and discussed with Levison the forthcoming "Belafonte affair", which will be held in Atlanta, Georgia, in early June. [REDACTED] U

The second individual told Levison that the sales for the affair so far have been moving along and have not been disappointing. Levison instructed the second individual to do the following things if sales were not progressing satisfactorily: [REDACTED] U

Date 4-30-62

The Gandhi Society for Human Rights is being organized by Stanley David Levison, secret Communist Party member, in name of Martin Luther King, Jr. This information was furnished to the White House and Attorney General on 4-20-62. It is interesting to note that Levison through Theodore Kheel, Arbitrator for the New York City Transit Authority, is apparently able to influence Victor Riesel, newspaper columnist, at least to the extent of publishing a favorable article concerning the Gandhi Society for Human Rights.

Bureau's attention is directed to 4/25/62 edition of the "New York Mirror" which carries an article by VICTOR RIESEL entitled, "Gandhi's Spirit Guides Integrationists." A copy of this article is enclosed.

It is believed that this article is identical with the one referred to in referenced airtel.

[redacted] advised on 4/26/62, that STANLEY LEVISON contacted "TED" KHEEL on that date. They referred to the "piece" and the two pictures that accompanied it. Both LEVISON and KHEEL expressed pleasure with the "piece" and stated that they would be able to use the "piece" in a variety of ways. KHEEL told LEVISON that he talked to "him" (RIESEL?) and that "he" (RIESEL) would be very obliged if "MARTIN" (LUTHER KING) could write to GLEN NEVILLE, "who is editor of 'the Mirror,'" indicating that the "piece" properly reflected his

NEW YORK MINOR, 4/25/62

Gandhi's Spirit Guides Integrationists

WITH GANDHI, THE REV. MARTIN LUTHER KING WILL MOVE AMONG HIS FOLLOWERS UNTIL HIS PRESENCE BECOMES A CENTRIFUGAL FORCE

VICTOR RIESEL: INSIDE LABOR

In Negro communities across the land—in the North as well as the South—a new spirit soon may prevail. It is the spirit of Gandhi and the voice of the Rev. Martin Luther King.

In more mundane terms, the word is that a vast expansion in emphasis and focus is waiting in the wings of the national stage. The emphasis will be on massive, peaceful, persistent resistance; eschewing any violence or provocation of violence. The hope is to win millions of new adherents everywhere, while avoiding extremists.

To encompass this, "to inspire, to teach, and to imbue" some 18,000,000 Negroes and millions of whites to join in exercising their constitutional prerogatives, Rev. King and many clergymen and lawyers soon will launch "The Gandhi Society for Human Rights, Inc." It can be exclusively reported here.

It will not be an action cadre. It will, after a formal conference sometime in mid-May, collect funds so it can teach Gandhi-ism to its followers.

The Gandhi Society has a pulsating religious motif. But there are practical men, such as the lawyers group organized by one of the incorporators, Theodore Kheel.

The admixture of religious and pragmatic fervor will be directed at mass white as well as Negro movements, as in India. These will be aimed at Negroes' equal use of buses, schools, trains, restaurants, hotels and job opportunities in the South as in the North.

Out of this creed of Martin Luther King based on non-violent persuasion may come boycotts and endless treks of Negroes to the ballot boxes.

A foreshadowing can be seen in Rev. King's recent "people to people" voters registration drive in Southern communities. Recently Rev. King led a task force into Virginia which contacted over 10,000 Negroes within three days. Thus it was with Gandhi, always moving among his followers until his sheer presence became a centrifugal force.

Rev. King and his fellow clergymen are counting on the lawyers, such as Ted Kheel, to win for them "the fulfillment of all legal rights" while they preach peaceful persuasion.

How? One of the purposes for which the corporation is being organized is: "To study, develop, establish, and administer plans, projects, and programs designed to enable and encourage attorneys to represent or assist in the representation of persons in need of legal aid as a result of seeking to exercise their constitutional or civil rights..."

Thus with the Bible in one hand, and Blackstone in the other, with Gandhi's passive resistance as the driving force, Rev. King and his colleagues hope to lead the land's eighteen million Negroes and millions of whites into marching together as a mighty force in every corner of the land.

KHEEL read a forthcoming article by VICTOR REISEL, entitled "MARTIN LUTHER KING To Launch New Movement Among The Nations 18 Million Negroes." KHEEL read the article to LEVISON and JONES and requested their reaction

LEVISON and JONES stated that the first sentence was "impossible" but that the remainder of the article was very good, needing only a word changed here and there. LEVISON and JONES, after some discussion, suggested that the first sentence be changed from, "MARTIN LUTHER KING To Launch-----" to read as follows:

"New Movement Based on MARTIN LUTHER KING Philosophy to Effect 18 Million Negroes in Negro and White Communities Across the Land."

LEVISON stated "this has to be changed to eliminate the picture of MARTIN LUTHER KING launching the society". All agreed with LEVISON. JONES added, "you (KHEEL) may have trouble on getting VICTOR REISEL to change --," but no one commented further on that remark
